

I Am Heard

(a prayer to the God Who hears)

Joshua Hill

Joshua Hill

$\text{♩} = 65$ D A

1. I come to pray, I bend my weary knees, I feel the
2. My heart is torn, Your voice is hard to hear. It's hard to
3. I can-not feel the peace You pro-mised me. Do You still
4. I will not stand un-less You stand with me. I will not

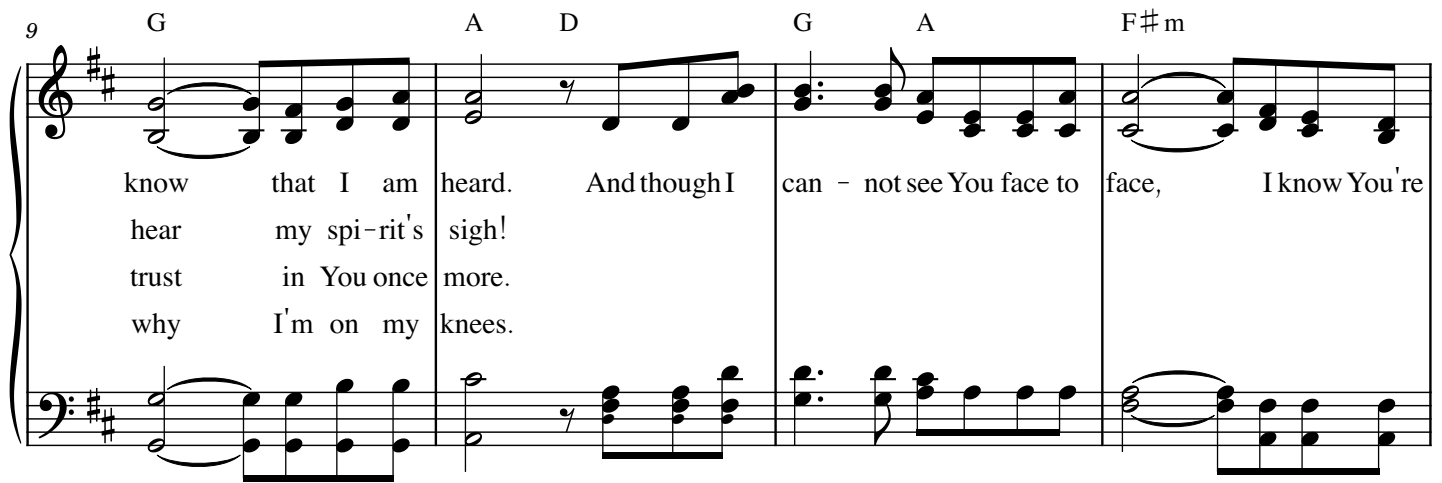

4 Bm F#m Bm G

skies re-ject my des-perate pleas, Un-til I turn to trust Your hold that You are tru-ly near. It's hard to stay, a-wai-ting firm-ly hold my des-ti-ny? I need to see just like I've go un-less You go with me, For I will ne-ver see the faith-ful Word. I know my hum-ble cry will pe-ne-trate the skies. I Your re-ply. But I can-not move on un-til Your an-swer comes - Oh, seen be-fore: You've al-ways been the same. My for-tress was Your Name. I'll vic-to-ry. I can-not go a-lone. The tri-umph's not my own. That's

7 D G Bm G D

9 G A D G A F#m

know that I am heard. And though I can - not see You face to face, I know You're hear my spi-rit's sigh!
 trust in You once more.
 why I'm on my knees.

13 G A D G A

there. I'm res-ting in Your grace. So un - til dark - ness pas-ses and the sun be-gins to shine, I'll trust my Fa - ther hears each prayer of mine.

16 F#m GM9 G A D