

Call to Unity

That all saints might seek unity in their local churches

1. In these last days, the church of Christ is plagued by grievous sin.
2. The call has sound-ed, "Join as one!" in fran-tic search of peace;
3. When Earth and time have passed a-way, the Bride shall join as one.

Each per-son seeks his self-ish will and strives that he may win... If we would see God
But, till we all are glor-i-fied, the strifes will nev-er cease... Our u-ni-ty is But now, where e-very church is found, May Je-sus' work be done... Each lo-cal church must work-ing as He has worked in times be-fore, We must re-pent of all our on-ly strong as our ho-ly love for God; For we will nev-er love the gath-er in self-de-ny-ing un-i-ty, For on-ly in one heart and pride, And He may work once more!

saints Un-til we love our Lord! One Lord, One faith, One im-mer-sion in His Name, mind Can God be tru-ly seen!

One God and Fath-er of all. To-ge-ther we must strive that all the earth may know our God!