

God, and God Alone

Isaiah 45:5-6

$\text{♩} = 90$ G G/B G D/F# Em

1. They tried to take His throne. They tried to take His glor - y by the things that He has made,
2. They tried to end His plan. They tried to kill the Prince of life, but they could ne - ver change
3. They'll chal-lenge Him a - gain, When Christ re - turn as right - ful heir of Da - vid's roy - al throne,
4. Then, through a thou - sand years, Our God will reign un - chal-lenged, and the at - mos - phere will ring,

G D G D/F# Em C

And thus, they are en - slaved. Their mas - ter, from his fall, has fought a - gainst the King;
E - ter - ni - ty's ex - change. His vic - to - ry was sure be - fore He chose His cross.
To rule the world He owns. But when He speaks the Word, His e - ne - mies will fall,
"All praise to Christ our King! Our foe can - not be found, and joy and peace a - bound!

G C Em C Dsus G/B C D Bm7 C

But eve - ry reb - el soon will bow be - fore His Ma - jes - ty!
The crimson tree and emp - ty grave an - nounce their ut - ter loss!
And all the world in humble fear will hail Him King of all!
Through - out our e - ver - last - ing life we'll sing on High - er Ground:

From His throne, the Lord looks down, wear - ing His e - ter - nal crown.

G G/B C C/E D G/B C D

He sits u - pon the seat of a - ges, nev - er to re - sign. Not a crea - ture in all space could pre - vail and take His place. He is God, God of all, and God a - lone!

Em C Am C D G