

We Shall Stand!

Dedicated to my Dad, who has faithfully stood with the Lord over the years when others around him were compromising and leaving the good fight of faith.

1. The bat - tle ra - ges on - ward! The fight is hard and long.
2. The en - e - my is search - ing for tir - ed, stumb - ling men -
3. In God's Word we see ex - amp - les of men who chose to stand.
4. Be - fore our glor - ious Cap - tain, no e - ne - my can stand!

The strug - gling wea - ry sol - diers long to hear the vic - tor's song!
-to weak - en and dis - arm them, to quench all life with - in.
A - gainst the cur - rent of the world, they fol - lowed God's com - mand!
Ten thou - sand pow'r - ful an - gels all a - wait our Lord's com - mand!

Fear and com - pro-mise have claimed the lives of ma - ny once good men.
But God has prom - ised strength to those who put their trust in Him.
God had raised up gen - er - a - tions of faith - ful, right - eous men.
He has pro - mised that He'll soon re - turn to take us fin - ally home!

Whowill bear the cross? Who will fight the fight? Whowill plant their feet and stand?
Sa-tan's strength re-cedes as we bow ourknees; he will flee if we will stand!
And by Hisgrace, whenwe've run our race, He'll a - gain raise men who'll stand!
But 'till then, we must put in Him our trust, fight the fight, and firm - ly stand!

We must stand,
(We must stand,) though all a-round us fall!

We must stand,
(We must stand) trust - ing in the Lord of all!

Our strength may be de - plet - ing but with our Cap - tain lead - ing, the bat - tle is the Lord's; so, we shall stand!
