

Still I Can Sing

for those in pain

♩ = 90 D G G/B C D G G/B C B7/D#

1. My day is spent in cry-ing, My night is filled with tears.
 2. Though You take all my com-forts, Re-move my dear-est friend,
 3. Dear Fa-ther, be my por-tion: I'm reel-ing from the pain.

B7/D# Em Bm/D C B7/D# Em Am7 Dsus D

My dreams are returned to night-mares, My mind is full of fears.
 In this I will sur-ren-der And on my God de-pend.
 For-give my faith-less doubt-ing Of what You stand to gain.

My ach-ing soul is filled with pain Where once was sweet re-lief,
 Though sol-id ground be-neath me moves And tow-ers 'round me fall,
 I choose You as the an-swer as Your mer-cy I re-ceive,

And not a soul be-neath the sun Can un-der-stand my grief.
 My crip-pled heart in grief will rise To crown You Lord of all!
 And I will sing that You are good Un-til I can be-lieve.

Still I can sing while I have a voice. Though all the pain, I choose to re-joice!

You are still wor-ty in my suf-fer-ing. While I have breath and have hope, Still I can sing.
